

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine
Washington, D. C.

B. E. P. Q.--375, Revised, Supplement No. 2.

March 8, 1938.

PLANT-QUARANTINE IMPORT RESTRICTIONS
OF THE
KINGDOM OF EGYPT

Importation of Dried Fruits Restricted

According to Booklet No. 20 of July 1937, Crop Protection Section, Ministry of Agriculture of Egypt, the import restrictions indicated in B. E. P. Q.--375 are applicable to the following dried fruits as well as to the fresh fruits, therefore the words "(fresh or dried)" should be added to the following items:

"FRUITS, STONE, including apricot, cherry, peach, plum" (page 8).

"GRAPEs (Vitis spp.)" (page 9).

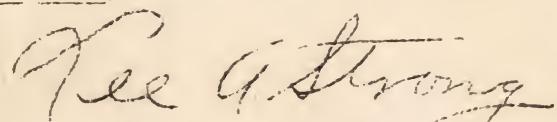

"LEGUMINOUS FRUITS AND SEEDS" (page 9).

"NUTS, GREEN, including almonds" should read:

"NUTS, including almonds (fresh or dried)."

Correction:

Item (b) of paragraph 1 of article 2 of Law No. 1 of 1916 (page 2 of Supplement No. 1, B. E. P. Q.--375), should read "kaki fruits or persimmons (Diospyros kaki)" instead of "cactus fruits."

LEE A. STRONG,
Chief, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

3 1262 09245 1771